barbecue genius... little do
they know, it's not the cook, it's the grill!"*

BARBECUE A FAMILY TRADITION

It doesn't take a lot of words to understand the joy of sharing great barbecue. Like so many generations before, barbecue is more than just sharing food, it's the sharing of family traditions from one generation to the next. It's about bringing the family together and taking the time to share great barbecue, catch up on what's important, and enjoy broad smiles and warm memories.

Fire up your Traeger, gather the family 'round and partake in that time honored American tradition that we are so proud to be a part of.

HOW THE TRAEGER WORKS

All natural wood pellets are poured into the hopper.

When you push the "On" switch, the hot rod activates for about four minutes, igniting the pellets in the firepot. The auger automatically feeds pellets from the hopper to the firepot where convection air is added, acting like a miniature forge.

Heat and wood smoke surround the food, resulting in fantastic taste. Drippings are channeled out of the cooking chamber into an external bucket for easy disposal.

Flipping the three-position switch to "High" allows you to grill. On "Medium" you can slow cook. The "Smoke" setting allows you to hot-smoke food. In the "Smoke" mode, the grill delivers an even smoke to your food without having to tend the fire. Traeger gives you the convenience of gas, the flavor of real wood!
